

INFORMATIONAL POSTCARDS II

I
T
A
L
Y
•
1
9
1
3

In 1913 a number of postcards were published to call attention to the antimalaria work being conducted in the Caulonia region of Reggio Calabria province. Produced by A. Liebman & Co. of Rome, each card bears a photo showing an aspect of the malaria issues being addressed.

Text: Postcard at top; Stab. A. Liebman & Co. - Rome at left
Notes:

reverse

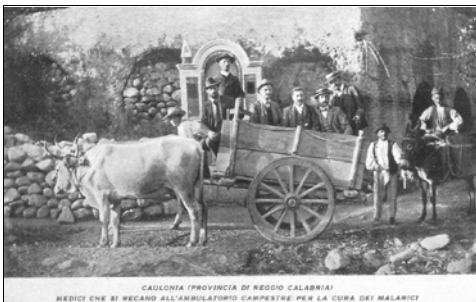

CAULONIA (PROVINCIA DI REGGIO CALABRIA)
AMBULATORIO ANTIMALARICO CAMPESINE - PERSONE CHE ATTENDONO LA DISTRIBUZIONE DI CHININO

Image: people seeking quinine pills
Text: Outpatient clinic in antimalarial country - People who are waiting for the distribution of quinine
Notes:
Price: E

B1

Checklist: __

CAULONIA (PROVINCIA DI REGGIO CALABRIA)
MEDICI CHE SI RECANO ALL'AMBULATORIO CAMPESINE PER LA CURA DEI MALARICI

Image: doctors in wagon
Text: Doctors who go to the rural clinic for the treatment of malaria
Notes:
Price: E

B2

Checklist: __

INFORMATIONAL POSTCARDS II

I
T
A
L
Y
•
1
9
1
3

Image: family group
Text: Consequences of malaria neglected
Notes: used: Rome: July 25, 1916
Price: E

B3

Checklist: __

