

SLOGAN CANCEL

LEBANON • 1962

Description: mosquito atop globe with inscription CAMPAGNE INTERNATIONALE ANTI-PALUDIQUE

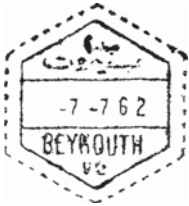

Size:

Usage: Earliest Reported: July 7, 1962
Latest Reported: July 7, 1962

Purpose: publicize the malaria eradication campaign

Notes: probably more aptly called a cachet as it contains no indication of town of origin; used as a cancel on all reported examples, some of which have typical post office cancel as well; covers with this cancel are often advertised as first day covers at inflated prices

SC-1 Lebanon

Size: 30 x 34 mm

Notes: cancel in addition to slogan applied to some of the reported covers
